Welcome

DAASEBRE AKUAMOAH AGYAPONG II

Kwahuhene, President of Kwahu Traditional Council

Once again, the famed Kwahu Easter and Paragliding festival is here. I welcome the thousands that are visiting our beautiful haven during this period; the many sons and daughters of Kwahu who are returning home to bond with friends and family, and our guests who are here to savour and enjoy our age-old hospitality. Akwaaba!

Over the years, tourism has emerged as a powerful force for progress and development, in order however, to deliver its full benefits, this force must be protected and nurtured through deliberate policies by all stakeholders.

Lately, the climate emergency is threatening many travel destinations and the very survival of communities and economies that depend on tourism.

To curtail this, there is the vital need for green investments to build a tourism sector that delivers for people and the planet.

I urge the government, and especially businesses in Kwahu to invest in sustainable and resilient tourism practices; private actors here must adopt zero-emission pathways, lower their energy consumption and leverage on renewable forms of energy. The Paragliding festival is one such novel event on the Easter calendar, which has added variety to the already known Easter activities in Kwahu since its inception. I urge the organisers to make the flying an all year round activity as it pertains elsewhere, and ensure local hands are trained to take up the sport.

In recent times, there has been justifiable calls by my people, for the government to complete works on the Nkawka Stadium, which incidentally serves as the landing site for the Paragliders. I am through this medium joining the many voices, in urging the government to expedite action on the stadiums' completion.

Kwahu is a treasure trove of mountains, ancient caves, forests, water bodies etc. I urge revelers to visit as many as possible, from the majestic Bruku rock/shrine, source of the Pra river, those beautiful rock formations at Amate, the stone age park at Abetifi, paramountcy at Kwahu Abene and for religious tourists, there is the Ramseyer Training Centre at Abetifi, and Kwahu Tafo Catholic grotto.

Unfortunately, many of these locations are undeveloped due chiefly to the deplorable nature of roads leading to those sites. I urge the government and private sector to liaise with Nananom to invest in such areas all in a bid to create jobs for our teeming unemployed youth, and add variety to 'Kwahu Easter'.

Such targeted investments can deliver jobs and support local businesses and industries, while mitigating the environmental impacts of tourism, empowering communities, promoting our cultures, and contributing to essential social protection systems.

I encourage the many visitors to be decorous, law-abiding and be tolerant of each other during their stay. Enjoy the warmth of the people, beautiful weather and serenity of Kwahu.

Asaase Aban!

Akwasi Agyeman
CEO, Ghana Tourism Authority

As we all join in the Kwahu Easter celebrations, it is with great pleasure and pride that the Ghana Tourism Authority introduces yet another Kwahu Easter Guide to showcase the beauty and vibrancy of Kwahu. Take a moment to read and discover the wonders and joys that await you in this remarkable corner of Ghana.

One of the standout accomplishments over the last few years has been the successful expansion and rehabilitation of the paragliding site, a popular and iconic destination for adventure seekers. The upgraded facilities and improved safety measures have not only attracted more thrill-seekers but have also elevated the overall experience, making it a must-visit place during Easter. We have seen an increasing number of people flying since we completed these works in 2020 with a corresponding increase in hotel occupancy rates.

The influx of visitors during the period not only boosts the local economy but has also enriches the cultural exchange and mutual understanding between visiting guests and our community stakeholders.

We applaud the effort of our private sector partners notably Rock City Hotel, Abetifi Stone age and other investors who have responded to the improving tourism climate to invest and continue to innovate to meet the changing landscape.

We have worked tirelessly to strengthen our relationships with all stakeholders in the area especially with the Traditional Council led by Dasabre Akuamoah Agyapong, the MCEs and DCEs, local businesses, tour operators, hoteliers, and community leaders. By fostering collaboration and open communication, we have created a more inclusive and sustainable tourism ecosystem that benefits everyone involved.

As we look ahead to the future of tourism in Kwahu, I am confident that we will continue to work together to further elevate the area as a top-tier destination for travellers seeking unforgettable experiences and a warm Ghanaian hospitality. We pay tribute to the Kwahu Business community, the Kwahu Professional Network and the three MPS, Hon Bryan Acheampong, Hon. Davis Ansah Opoku and Hon. Joseph Frimpong representing Abetifi, Mpraeso and Nkawkaw respectively for their support.

Thank you, and may your Easter celebrations be filled with joy, peace, and lasting memories.

DCE for Kwahu East

As we joyfully commemorate the 2024 Kwahu Easter and Paragliding Festival, it brings me great pleasure to extend my warmest greetings on behalf of His Excellency the President, Chiefs, and the entire populace of the Kwahu East District. This celebration not only marks a time of festivity but also serves as a moment of gratitude to all those who tirelessly contribute to the advancement of tourism and hospitality within our district. Kwahu East continues to shine as a beacon of progress in the Eastern region. Since its establishment on 29th February 2008, the District Assembly has remained steadfast in its commitment to ushering in comprehensive development for our people.

Our district has swiftly evolved into a prominent hub for hospitality and tourism in Ghana, featuring ROCK CITY HOTEL, the largest hotel in Ghana and West Africa, along with numerous opportunities for private sector investors. The District Assembly has fostered an enabling environment for private enterprises to flourish, extending a warm invitation to prospective investors to participate in the development of our numerous tourist attractions.

Indeed, Kwahu East District boasts of some of the most captivating natural and cultural wonders that have the potential to allure both domestic and international tourists. Our district serves as a convergence of cultural and geological marvels, offering visitors a plethora of captivating attractions. From the ancient Bruku Shrine and majestic Butuase, Oku-Abena and Owrobong Waterfalls in Kwahu Tafo, Bokuruwa and Oworobong respectively to the awe-inspiring Gaping Rock in Kotoso, the Bisia Mountain in Bokuruwa, the stone-aged park and the highest habitable point in Ghana at Abetifi, Ramsey Route in Abetifi, Nana Ampong Adjei Cave in Abene, and the Echo Mountains in Akwasiho, alongside the iconic Kwahu Easter festival promises an unforgettable experience for all who visit.

The Kwahu Easter and Paragliding Festival stands out as a highlight among the Kwahu people and tourists alike. This annual celebration sees millions flocking to Kwahu, engaging in a myriad of social gatherings and funfair activities for four days. The Easter festivities hold immense tourism potential, particularly with the internationally acclaimed Paragliding Festival.

As Maya Angelou once eloquently stated, 'Each person deserves a day away in which no problems are confronted, no solutions searched for. Each of us needs to withdraw from the cares which will not withdraw from us.'

We remain committed to collaborating with the Ghana Tourism Authority, investors, and all key stakeholders to diversify and expand the tourism industry, fostering economic development within our district and beyond. This aligns with the government's vision of creating prosperity and equal opportunities for all.

Let us join hands in celebrating the vibrancy of Kwahu East and the boundless potential of our tourism sector.

The Easter 2024 is upon us and as usual the Kwahu State in general and the Kwahu South Municipal Assembly in particular are thrilled to welcome all its global revelers who travel here to celebrate Easter.

As you are all aware, the Easter festivities brings over 1 million people to the Kwahu State, and a greater percentage of this number would be hovering between Atibie, Mpraeso, Obomeng and Obo. In this regard, it is important that, our security architecture is made ready to respond.

The Ghana Police Service has deployed enough police men and women to help with security during the Easter Holidays. Some of these officers would be in uniform, others would be in mufty. I want to use this opportunity to appeal to all person who intend to travel to Kwahu for the Easter to strictly adhere to safety protocols. As you celebrate Easter 2024 let us remember to stay safe and adhere strictly to safety protocols.

The Assembly continues to be the sole rating authority in the Municipality. As such we encourage all businesses to visit the Assembly and acquire the necessary permits before they embark on any business activities. A task force would be moving round to monitor and any business or vendor found to have violated the law would be handed over to the police for appropriate action to be taken.

Kwahu South continues to boast of hosting some of the best tourism potentials in the Kwahu State. The Odewanoman Paraglding Site, The Hiking Trial, The Ancestral Cave, The Nkofieho Mysitc Cave just to mention a few. These sites are open for patrons to explore and take away memorable experiences while serving as Ambassadors for the Kwahu State. The bright lights of Obomeng Night life and the fun of pubs like Premier and Total 2 offers an unforgettable experience and we encourage patrons to make time for such places.

As the gentle breeze of onset of the rainy season revitalizes the earth and expose the vibrant hues of greens that adorn the landscape, we warmly welcome you to a season of renewal and joy. It also offers a perfect backdrop for the exploration and discovery of the many tourism potentials that the Kwahu South Municipality boasts off. MCE for Kwahu West

Once again the legendary Okwahu Easter ( Yesu amanehunu) is here with us.

For years the festivities surrounding Easter in the Kwahu enclave had become a much awaited event for most Ghanaians who saw it as an opportunity to “wind down” after a year’s hard work.

I am aware of the effort being put in place by Nananom and partners to gradually develop, as time goes by, a more structured festival to rival some of the world acclaimed carnivals in the Caribbean. Where we encourage car owners to park their vehicles downhill at secure parking lots at Nkawkaw and hitch bus rides uphill, in addition to the ever popular paragliding event.

In the coming years more innovations will be incorporated into the festival to make it more commemorative and worthwhile for revellers. The idea in the longrun, is to make the Kwahu enclave an all year round tourism destination and to monetise the abundant natural and human resources that have, as of now, been left untapped.

No worries about where to lodge. Kwahu now boasts of one of the plushest hotels in West Africa, Rock City , the latest addition to the other starred hotels on our ridge.

A home away from home awaits you this Easter in Kwahu as you come to celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus, the Christ with us.

Bruku Rock

Bruku is located in Kwahu -Tafo in the Kwahu East District, Bruku as popularly called is best viewed from the Adawso stretch. The "god" bruku is the sacred guard watching over the entire Kwahu enclave. Magnificent as it is, it was once believed to be higher and visible by sailors on the ocean 150 km away.

Afram River

Is a special river in Kwahu as it serves as the connecting gateway between Kwahu and the Afram Plains. The Afram river was a small river that became a vast stream of river after the construction of the Akosombo dam. The beauty of the river is superb especially during the raining season.

Oworobong Waterfalls

Oworobong is a small town after Ankoma township also in the Kwahu east District. The waterfall is a wonderful two-level waterfall, misty in full flow and half hidden below tangled and bird-filled trees, which is worth a visit.

Abetifi Stone Age

The Abetifi Stone Age Park is both man made and heritage site with a very fascinating history. Abetifi stone age park is a multi-purpose tourist site and museum which depicts the indigenous stone age era.

Echo Ravine/Padlock Rock

In the forest near Twenedurase just after Obo is a natural wall of rock which responds to your voice with a marvelous echo. You can actually stand on a ledge and call out your name and will never forget the sound of that calling coming back at you. Inside the forest is a formation in the cliff which the locals call Padlock Rock.

Kwahu Aduamaoh Fort

Aduamoah township in the Kwahu East District is well known for the production of tiger nuts in Ghana. It also houses the oldest palace (fort) in Kwahu which is over 300 years old. The palace is the seat of the Kwahu Benkumhene which literally means the chief of the left wing of the Kwahu Traditional set up.

GENERAL INFORMATION ON PARAGLIDING

Paragliding is an aviation sport that is enjoyed by hundreds of people around the world. It is most popular in Europe where there is an estimated 400,000 pilots. In the United States, numbers are considerably less but the sport is increasing in popularity.

In flight, the pilot remains in a sitting position inside a harness hanging below the canopy. Most modern harnesses include a reserve parachute which may be deployed in case of emergency. The paraglider is launched from a hillside or towed with a winch. It is kept aloft by a ram-air aerofoil canopy. It is steered by using vertical riser lines attached to the chute.

In calm air, the average speed over ground of a standard paraglider is approximately 30/40km/h. The performance of a paraglider is measured by its glide ratio, defined as the vertical over horizontal distance it covers.

A paragliding flight may be performed by a single pilot or an experienced pilot [instructor] together with a passenger (with no prior flying experience) attached to the same canopy. Such passenger flights require special equipment (tandem paraglider). A paraglider flight can last between a few minutes and a few hours, depending on weather conditions and the skill of the pilot. Paragliders flown by an experienced pilot may cover distances of tens and even hundreds of kilometers without the use of a motor at any stage of the flight.

The origin of paragliding has roots in the sport of parachuting. In the early 1960s, American parachutist Pierre Lemoine was successful in cutting slots in the round parachute through the canopy. This had a dramatic effect on the lift to drag ratio and allowed for the pilot to steer the chute in a predictable manner.

Paragliding can be enjoyed by adults of all ages, both men and women, as it does not require any particular strength or exceptional physical fitness. A basic training enabling a person with no previous experience to fly a paraglider independently and safely, take approximately 15 days during which the theoretical knowledge can be acquired. The training should be carried out under the supervision of experienced instructors with the use of suitable and reliable equipment.

In Ghana, Paragliding was initiated by the Ministry of Tourism in April 2005 during the annual Easter Festival in Kwahu Atibie. It was organized to coincide with the Easter festivities that year on the Odweanoma Mountains, with the exception of 2009, the Paragliding Festival has been organized each year. As an aviation sport, the event is patronized by both local and international tourists during the Easter season. In addition, Paragliding has also been adopted as part of the tourism calendar of events in Ghana.

GIHOC Distilleries Under HON. MAXWELL K. JUMAH

Managing Director of GIHOC Distilleries Company Ltd, hon Maxwell Kofi Jumah has transformed GIHOC Distilleries ever since he assumed this position in 2017 which has led the company churned so many prestigious awards. The former KMA mayor and former Member of Parliament for the Asokwa constituency in 2004, and 2008 respectively, as well as the former deputy local government rural and development Minister has made significant changes that have benefited the company.

Hon. K. Jumah, upon his takeover, added another prominent brand to the GIHOC product line, APET DRY GIN, Herbalife bitters which has become a household product in recent times. He also launched Premium bottles of Herb Afrik Gin Bitters, Mandingo Bitters, Castle Bridge London Dry Gin, and Chevalier Brandy. During the pandemic, which destroyed many businesses, he swiftly introduced sanitizer, which was then the most expensive commodity in Ghana. However, GIHOC's hand sanitizer was not expensive since he believed it was his part to eradicating the scourge. The sanitizer kept GIHOC in business while other businesses closed. As part of efforts to make GIHOC work again, he reintroduced into the company's product portfolio, Meridian natural mineral water, which was shielded for more than a decade. The Cocktail Unit was added as a marketing tool to help sell the products. In making GIHOC products an international brand, we now have distributors in Liberia, Nigeria, and the Ivory Coast. Very soon, GIHOC will begin operations in China, the United States, and South Africa. He pursued a gender policy in his management team, allowing women a 50 percent chance to be a member of it. Salaries has since been increased twice, 50%, and 24% respectively across the board for all employees immediately upon taking office. He has acquired a new water factory in Kumasi, increasing employment and revenue for the company. Staff strength has increased from 150 to 400 and counting. GIDI Shops were established in all districts of Ghana, this he believes, increase proximity. He implemented the sales executive system and founded the Events unit, Media Relations unit, Legal department, and Projects unit to name a few. The company expanded its clinic to provide for employee health care. Hon Kofi Jumah as well Introduced the usage of fermented fruits as alcohol. The Aboso Glass Factory which is a late ad-on is now being refurbished for the production of glass bottles to aid factories in beating the menace that comes with exporting of glass bottles.

Staff strength has increased from 150 to 400 and counting. GIDI Shops were established in all districts of Ghana, this he believes, increase proximity.
